Restoration by Gary Coffrin

TEPEE INTERIOR
circa 1905.

Edward H. Boos captured the view at the Flathead Reservation in northwest Montana. The male's braids were wrapped, and he was holding cards. A large meat fork was at the lower left; three coffee pots were in the foreground. Bowls and spoons were to the right.

*Day of Reconciliation,
Reparation and Fasting*

Wednesday, April 9, 2025

Archbishop Jeffrey S. Grob is asking the Catholic faithful to observe a Day of Reconciliation, Reparation, and Fasting during the season of Lent of this Jubilee Year.

Reconciliation

Eleven host parishes will offer 12 continuous hours of the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Reparation and Fasting

Catholics throughout the archdiocese are invited to fast and make small acts of reparation by reflecting on where we individually, and as a society, have failed to be signs of hope to others especially the most vulnerable.

On the Lighter Side

Jesus and Satan were arguing about who was better at the computer. They had been going at it for days, and frankly, God was tired of hearing all the bickering..

Finally fed up, God said, "THAT'S IT"! I will set up a test that will run for 2 hours and from those results will judge who does a better job. So Satan and Jesus sat down at their keyboards and started to type away.

They moused, faxed, e-mailed, e-mailed with attachments, downloaded, did spreadsheets, reports, and many other computer functions and processes. Jesus worked with heavenly efficiency and Satan was faster than hell. Then, ten minutes before their time was up, lightning suddenly flashed across the sky, thunder rolled, rain poured, and, of course, the power went off. Satan stared his blank screen and screamed every curse word known in the underworld.

Jesus just sighed...

Finally the electricity returned and each of them restarted their computers. Satan started searching frantically, screaming "It's gone! It's all GONE! I lost everything when the power went out. Meanwhile Jesus quietly started printing out all his files from the last two hours of work.

Satan observed this and became irate. "Wait!" He screamed. "That's not fair!" He cheated. How come he has all his work and I don't have any?"
God just laughed and said, "JESUS SAVES."
